BILL NUMBER

BRIEF TITLE

APPROVAL DEADLINE

REASON

Dissolution of the Community Development
Task Force

DETAILS

Reason for Legislation

During FY 2006, then Mayor Coleen J. Seng, dissolved the Community Development Task Force (CDTF), a 25-member advisory group appointed by the Mayor.

Discussion (Including Relationship to other Council Actions)

The primary duties of the Community Task Force were to approve the Annual Action Plan and the annual Consolidated Annual Performance and Evaluation Report (CAPER), the Five-Year Strategic Plan, which must be submitted to HUD and fund transfers.

Due to changes in HUD requirements, it was felt there was not enough on-going activities for the Task Force members and attendance, especially when a quorum was necessary, had become a struggle.

It was also the belief of Urban Development that broader participation could be achieved by expanding beyond the CDTF. Avenues for exploration include such activities as announcements at the Mayor's Neighborhood Roundtable or other community groups, use of the Internet, community/public open houses, and forming special task forces on an as-needed basis.

Additionally, the CDTF was a local creation and not required by HUD. HUD requires citizen participation but leaves it up to the jurisdiction to decide how public input is solicited. This will provide a new opportunity to broaden input, a direction which HUD has been encouraging.
